

MEDIA ALERT

LIMITED TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR FREE EVENT

HBO and Comcast to Host Pittsburgh Premiere of HBO Family Documentary Film

“LOCKS OF LOVE: THE KINDEST CUT”

* Munhall resident Amanda Barnett who is featured in film will attend*

- WHAT: HBO and Comcast will host a screening of the HBO Family Documentary Film “LOCKS OF LOVE: THE KINDEST CUT” on Tuesday, September 29.
- WHO: Munhall resident 13 year-old Amanda Barnett who suffered from hair loss and is featured in the film will attend as well as one of the filmmakers.
- WHEN: Tuesday, September 29, 2009
6:00 p.m. – Refreshments
7:00 p.m. – Screening
7:30 p.m. – Discussion with Amanda Barnett and one of the filmmakers
7:45 p.m. – Hairstylists will cut hair for those interested in donating their locks.
- WHERE: Children’s Museum of Pittsburgh
10 Children’s Way
Pittsburgh, PA
RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED. SEATING IS LIMITED.
RSVP to 1-866-717-6072.
- Details: Growing up is difficult enough without having to deal with losing your hair. The HBO Family Documentary LOCKS OF LOVE is the story of three young girls who lost their hair to illness, but found ways to regain their confidence through the love and support of their families – and through the generosity of people who have given up their locks so that the girls, and others like them, can feel more like their old selves.

“LOCKS OF LOVE: THE KINDEST CUT” premieres Saturday, October 3
on HBO Family

MEDIA RSVP TO:

Loraine Anderson, HBO (212) 512-7641 loraine.anderson@hbo.com
Chris Murray, GaileyMurray Communications (484) 368-3322 cmurray@gaileymurray.com